Tânia Ferreira Osório, partner at pbb, has been appointed to the European Leadership Group for Meritas, an alliance of independent law firms. Tânia Osório will serve a three-year term, building relationships throughout the organization on behalf of the European region, furthering the mission of the organization, and participating in strategic planning, member recruitment, retention, and development for the region, states the Lisbon-based law firm pbb.

"Leadership from members like Tânia is vital to a strong, connected network of lawyers with on-the-ground expertise about complexities and opportunities in their unique markets for clients looking to expand their businesses", says Sona Pancholy, president of Meritas.

Tânia Ferreira Osório practices in the area of public law, including public procurement and administrative litigation, planning, real estate law and construction. She earned her law degree from University of Lisbon in 2002, and is a member of the Lisbon bar. A Meritas member firm, pbb was founded in 2006 and works mainly on the fields of real estate, employment and corporate law. Founded in 1990, Meritas has member firms in 173 markets worldwide with nearly 9,000 lawyers.
